No. 3:03-CR-34
(Phillips)

ORDER AMENDING JUDGMENT

On September 8, 2003, the defendant was sentenced to time served followed by three years of supervised release for violation of 18 U.S.C. 152. As a special condition of supervised release, the court ordered defendant deported and tolled the term of supervised release for the period that defendant remained outside the United States for a period not to exceed ten years.

Pursuant to the Sixth Circuit's recent decision in United States v. Ossa-Gallegos, 491 F.3d 537 (6th Cir. 2007) holding that tolling is not a contingency of supervised release under 18 U.S.C. § 3583(d) and that district courts may not toll the period of supervised release while a defendant is absent from the United States, the court hereby AMENDS the judgment in this case to RESCIND the tolling provision as a special condition of supervised release. All other provisions of the judgment shall remain as previously ordered by the court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
